

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION AT DAYTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 3:22-cr-124-4

vs.

JOSHUA A. HUGHES, et al.,

District Judge Michael J. Newman

Defendants.

---

ORDER: (1) CONFIRMING THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST FILE BY JANUARY 30, 2023 ITS MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO SEVER COUNTS (Doc. No. 67); (2) DIRECTING DEFENDANT DOROTHY BAILEY TO FILE HER REPLY, IF SHE CHOOSES TO FILE ANY, BY FEBRUARY 23, 2023; (3) SETTING A HEARING REGARDING THE MOTION TO SEVER COUNTS FOR FEBRUARY 27, 2023 AT 4:00 PM IN COURTROOM 4; (4) VACATING THE TRIAL DATE PREVIOUSLY SET (Doc. No. 53); AND (5) CONFIRMING THAT THE SPEEDY TRIAL CLOCK IS TOLLED UNTIL ALL PENDING MOTIONS ARE RESOLVED

---

This case is before the Court regarding Defendant Dorothy Bailey's pending motion to sever counts. Doc No. 67. The Court CONFIRMS, as the Government articulated in its status report (Doc. No. 68), that the Government's memorandum in opposition is DUE by January 30, 2023. Defendant's reply, if she chooses to file any, is due by February 23, 2023. A hearing regarding the motion to sever counts is SET for February 27, 2023 at 4:00 PM.

Because this schedule extends past January 30, 2023, the current trial date (Doc. No. 53), that trial date is impractical and is VACATED. Finally, the Court CONFIRMS that the speedy trial clock is tolled pending resolution of the motion to sever counts as well as Defendant Joshua Hughes's motion to revoke the detention order. Doc. No. 55. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(d).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

January 20, 2023

s/Michael J. Newman
Hon. Michael J. Newman
United States District Judge